'round, wher - ev - er man is found: The Com - fort - er has come!

The musical score is written for a two-part setting, likely for soprano and bass voices. It consists of two systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The first system contains the lyrics "Ghost from heav'n, the Fa - ther's prom - ise giv'n, O spread the tid - ings". The second system contains the lyrics "'round, wher - ev - er man is found: The Com - fort - er has come!". The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with block chords and moving lines. There are repeat signs at the beginning and end of the first system, and a final double bar line at the end of the second system.

*Optional segue to "Holy Spirit, Thou Art Welcome."
No transition is needed. Ritard the last phrase of
"The Comforter Has Come."*
