

802 The Star-Spangled Banner

Some trust in chariots and horses, but we trust in God. Psalm 20:7

1. O say, can you see, by the dawn's ear - ly light,
2. O thus be it ev - er, when free men shall stand

The first system of musical notation for 'The Star-Spangled Banner'. It consists of a treble and a bass staff, both in 3/4 time and B-flat major. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staves.

What so proud - ly we hailed at the twi - light's last gleam - ing,
Be - tween their loved homes and the war's des - o - la - tion;

The second system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics are written below the staves.

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the per - il - ous fight,
Blest with vic - t'ry and peace, may the heav'n - res - cued land

The third system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staves.

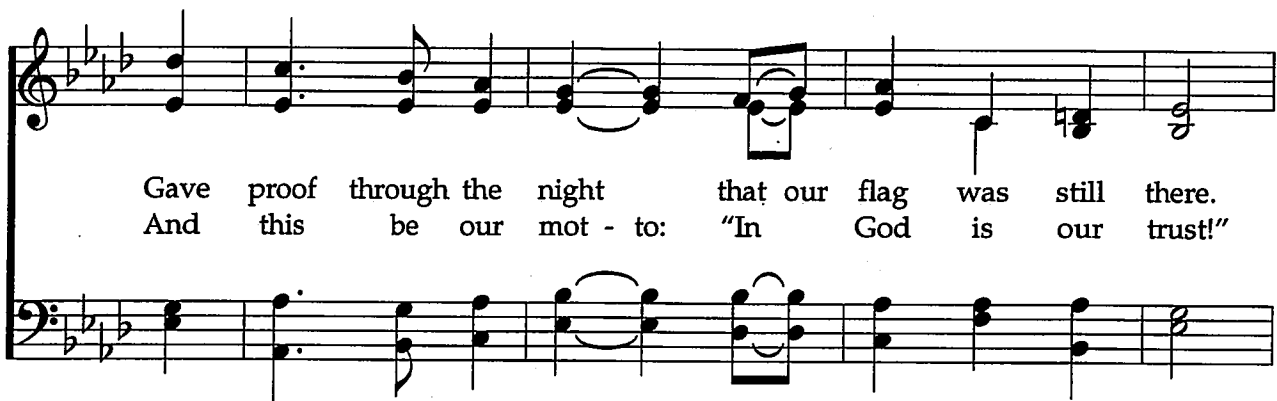

O'er the ram - parts we watched, were so gal - lant - ly stream - ing?
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and pre - served us a na - tion!

The fourth system of musical notation. It concludes the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staves.

GOD AND COUNTRY

And the rock - ets' red glare, the bombs burst - ing in air,
Then con - quer we must, when our cause it is just;

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
And this be our mot - to: "In God is our trust!"

O say, does that star - span - gled ban - ner yet
And the star - span - gled ban - ner in tri - umph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
