me, Didst rise that Glo - rious Day; My life, oh,

3. Baptized am I; in me
The old mind should be dying;
In need I fly to Thee,
My God, on Thee relying;
Life's center Thou shalt be,
So aid me, Lord, in this:
That men in me may see
What Thy baptism is.

4. Baptized am I in Thy
Atoning death and passion,
That of its blessings I
Might come in full possession.
Thou didst my soul redeem;
Do then my heart sustain
Thee only to esteem,
In gladness and in pain.

5. Baptized am I; now may
This truth the whole world ponder.
I live no more as they
Who in deep darkness wander;
Baptism urges me
That I by constant prayer
Resist the enemy
With power, everywhere.

6. Baptized am I; now shall
No wayward thought of erring
Cast o'er my heart a spell,
My soul to evil snaring.
For what may tempt my heart,
And every sinful pride,
Upon Thy cross, O Lord,
Shall hence be crucified.

7. Now grant to me Thy pow'r
So that I may not waver,
And bless me every hour,
O my belovèd Savior!
Thus shall I safely fare
Upon this blessèd way,
And reach the city where
Thy peace shall reach for aye.
